Coffee & Tea Inspired Cocktails Paired with Hi-Fi Teatime at Room One

5 August 2013, Hong Kong - Where day turns into night and lifestyles mix as easily as one of our signature cocktails, Room One lures in with deliciously styled afternoon tea set paired with coffee and tea inspired cocktails and eclectic sounds.

Within ambient-lit interiors styled by lifestyle guru Colin Cowie, make your regular afternoon turn into an intriguing evening over a three-tier, glossy platter adorned with sweet and savoury homemade delicacies enhanced by the shaken or stirred liquid delights to suit your mood of the day.

Among the highlights skillfully executed by the accomplished Executive Pastry Chef of The Mira Hong Kong, Jean-Marc Gaucher, are some of the most desired sweets: freshly baked scones with homemade jasmine-mango compote; Chestnut Success on Biscuit, Fizzy Chocolate Mousse, and refreshing Raspberry Trifle. On the savory level, look out for aromatic Roast Beef Sandwich with Red Wine Onion & Herbs, or creamy Seafood Quiche.

Masterminded by Room One's skillful mixologists, two invigorating or relaxing cocktails and mocktails to choose from are a new alternative to a cup of tea or coffee. Feeling Light? Take a sip of zesty mocktail combining tropical guava juice with green tea and a squeeze of fresh lime juice, or select chilled espresso, honey, crème fresh and home-made vanilla syrup. Feeling High? Treat yourself to a gentle gin concoction of orange marmalade, orange liqueur, grapefruit juice and home-made chamomile tea syrup. Or delight your senses with fragrant Frangelico hazelnut liqueur, Bailey's and Oolong tea concentration.

Hi-Fi Teatime at Room One is available daily from 3pm to 6pm at HK$188 per person and HK$338 for two guests. For ultimate glamour Veuve Clicquot Ponsardin NV Champagne at additional HK$120 per glass is a seductive pairing option with the afternoon indulgence.
