Mira Junior Master Chef & Junior Hotel Idol

6 July 2013, Hong Kong: For two weekends this summer The Mira Hong Kong presents the kids with a unique chance of tasting the fabulous life combining learning with fun through an engaging, hands-on training on how to become a seasoned hotelier and spark their desire to become an award-winning chef in a five-star hotel. It's the perfect idea for inspiring a passion in your little ones and spending a family weekend in the city this summer.

Classes conducted in Cantonese combine training in Dining Etiquette, Housekeeping as well as fun Mira Studio session with Miniature Uniform Photography on day one. Day two is filled with exciting culinary adventure of dim sum and sushi making as well as competition.

For families of junior talents participating in the program, urban retreat and dining destination offers special 10% discount across its F&B outlets, 10% discount on a la carte treatments and spa products at MiraSpa as well as a special supplement for suite accommodation valid on the days of classes.

Mira Junior Master Chef & Junior Hotel Idol is priced at HK$1,100 per person for 2 consecutive days or HK$600 per person per day. Early Bird discount of 10% applies for bookings on or before 15 July 2013.
