Oriental Brunch at Cuisine Cuisine at The Mira with New Menu Weaving Contemporary Chinese Flavors onto a Western Concept of Weekend Dining

8 April 2016, Hong Kong: Cuisine Cuisine at The Mira – Michelin-recommended contemporary Chinese restaurant of the urban lifestyle retreat in Tsim Sha Tsui - puts a Cantonese spin on a western dining concept with its Saturday brunch including all-you-can-eat dim sum and desserts served to table, gourmet mains, premium grade teas brewed with mineral water, and free-flowing wines for an exquisite family gathering.

Brewed with fine dining mineral water for enhanced flavor and purity of taste, the premium tea choice ranges from buttery top grade Oolong to smoky aged Pu Erh and delicate Iranian Rose Buds, prepared with greatest attention by the restaurant's experienced tea servers table-side. Coming from the heart of Tuscany, Aquapanna water takes 13 years to flow through the pristine aquifer before it reaches the surface at the natural spring and it is bottled.

Unlimited dim sum selection in this “brunch meets yum cha” concept executed by the culinary team led by Dim Sum Sous Chef Ringo Wong includes a dozen of all-time favorites such as Har Gow, the crystal-skinned shrimp dumplings, delicate Steamed rice flour rolls stuffed with minced beef and wild mushroom, veggie specialty – the Steamed wild mushroom and black truffle dumpling, as well as luxuriously rich Crispy taro puff with diced chicken and foie gras.

Seasonal vegetables and a choice of mains introduced on the new spring menu includes the latest culinary addition to the restaurant's a la carte signature dishes - tender Kurobuta pork roll stuffed with foie gras and raspberries - as well as Pan-fried scallop with crab roe and black truffle, and Butter prawns with salted egg yolk. These are followed by unlimited desserts including Cantonese favorite Chilled mango cream with sago and pomelo, complete with free-flowing sparkling, red and white wines to choose from, while non-alcoholic version of the brunch includes free flow of soft drinks and juice.

Premium Chinese Tea Selection

Supreme Pu Erh Tea is a black tea category tea produced in Yunnan. The fermentation process occurs naturally through years of storing in the right conditions. It is smooth and mellow with a particular flavor which can't be found in other types of teas. The color of this Pu Erh ranges from a clear red to a dark brick red tone. Pu Erh teas can aide with reducing cholesterol and improving metabolism.

Ginseng Oolong is a semi-fermented Oolong tea from Fujian Province. The tea has a floral orchid-like aroma and lingering sweetness. When brewed, the liquor is pale amber in color with a fragrant and bittersweet aftertaste. Beneficial effects attributed to this type of Oolong include helping to lower cholesterol levels, and improving digestion.

Monkey Picked Tieguanyin, also known as the Fresh Fragrance Iron Buddha, is not harvested by monkeys as one could assume, but is one of the top grades of Tieguanyin, the half-fermented Chinese Oolong family teas, coming from Fujian Province. The tea leaves are roasted briefly at a low temperature to release its buttery-rich floral scent. The taste is rich, full-bodied yet long lasting.

Phoenix Dancong Oolong is a semi-fermented Oolong tea from Guangdong Province. It is refreshing quenching and exhibits sweet aftertaste, fragrant aromatic persistence with natural flowers and fruit. It is believed to cool down the excessive heat of the body, apart from quenching of thirst.

Pink Rose Buds from Iran is a slightly fermented herbal tea, an infusion of the delicate rose buds that have been steamed, dried and gently crushed for steeping. The infusion has a soothing, fresh, flowery aroma and drinkers of this tea claim many benefits, from calming nerves to improving complexion, circulation and digestion.
