The Mira Hong Kong Celebrates Art Month in the City with a Splash of Colour & Heritage

Art-inspired Degustation Menu at WHISK and Cocktails at Room One

1 March 2017, Hong Kong: Celebrating life as colourful joie de vivre and paying homage to its locale, The Mira Hong Kong presents its art-inspired menu at WHISK and creative cocktails at Room One lobby bar available from 8 – 26 March. Aficionados awaiting the most anticipated contemporary art fairs of the season in one of the most prominent art hubs and culinary capital cities of Asia are invited to take a sip of and taste edible art at an opening night with a live DJ on March 8th.

“Life – Art – Colour” is the theme of the 6-course degustation menu by Chef Oliver Li at the contemporary Western restaurant WHISK featuring modern interiors masterminded by the Miami-based interior designer Charles Allem listed on Architectural Digest’s “AD 100” hall of fame.

From painter’s palette to gourmand’s palate, represented in six abstract dishes inspired with six colour hues corresponding with six international culinary and art hotspots, creatively entwined ingredients from around the world become plated art on its own at the ingredient-centric restaurant with a strong focus on premium quality meats and seafood.

Opening with a plate of Japanese zen “Green” Ama Ebi Shrimp Sashimi wrapped in Avocado and Avruga Caviar, to a refreshing dish of Octopus, Watermelon and Beetroot depicting temperamental Spanish “Red” and hearty German “Black” Pork Knuckle with Black Garlic and Sage, hungry art lovers may expect culinary expressions that are not only artfully presented but are also full of flavour and essence to give the much needed energy for gallery hopping and exclusive after-parties around town. Italian “White” on a pristine white canvas of the plate is a thought-provoking invitation to delicate flavors and textures of a marble-white creamy risotto with crunchy white asparagus and gentle, briny clams.

Among 4 wine pairings selected by the sommelier, global gourmands will be delighted to find an artfully labeled boutique Tuscan wine by Bibi Graetz, and a unique Riesling by Jean Meyer, a winemaker who uses handpicked artworks of Alsatian artists to illustrate the personality of each grape variety locked within the wine bottle.

Befitting the occasion, creative drinks at the hotel lobby bar Room One are a tribute to the vibrant cultural scene of Hong Kong with its eclectic Chinese roots and cosmopolitan influences. Inspired with Kowloon’s landmarks depicted in many shapes and forms of contemporary art, be it painting, film, modern installation or sculpture, the collection of 4 artsy cocktails at Room One celebrate the wondrous pool of home-grown talent and art aficionados who have put Hong Kong on the map of international art.

Aptly presented drinks are named after iconic locations of Kowloon, the local landmarks of the vibrant neighbourhood of The Mira Hong Kong, including prune powder coated Temple Street; pirate chest locked fragrant Harbour Front; Flight to Kai Tak presented in ceramic crockery; and Kowloon Walled City with notable notes of lychee and hibiscus. Blurring the lines, each drink concocted by Room One’s mixologist Rocky is served with a matching nibble that has a strong reference to the locale and fits the flavour profile of each tipple, be it roasted seaweed snacks, Chinese almond cookies, or the roasted sweet chestnuts.
