茶在中國已有五千年悠久歷史，同時孕育茗茶的文化起源。
要泡一杯上等茗茶，水的品質是其中一個重要元素。追溯至古時，
茗茶大師陸羽先生曾於其舉世聞名的首部著作《茶經》描述，
「其水，山水上、江水中、井水下」，並表示山上的天然泉水乃泡茶的首選。
因為泉水蘊含中性的酸鹼值及平衡的礦物成分，不會令茶味變質，
其泉水的礦物質更有助突顯茶葉的天然幽香。

The history of tea in China is nearly 5,000 years old, China is also an origin of tea culture. To make a perfect tea, the quality of water is one of the most important elements to be considered. In ancient times, China's Sage of Tea- Lu Yu described in his best known the very first monograph on tea in the world <<Chá Jing>> that "Water, mountain water is excellent, river water is average, well water is moderate" which means spring water from the mountain serves the best purpose for brewing tea, Spring water has a neutral pH and well balanced mineral composition. It does not turn the tea acid or astringent, the mineral contents of natural spring water can bring out the most wonderful aroma of the leaves.
